

MD MEDICAL GROUP PUBLISHES ITS 2024 ANNUAL REPORT

14 April 2025. MD Medical Group IPJSC ("MD Medical", "Group" or "Company"; MOEX: MDMG), a leading Russian private healthcare provider, announces the publication of its 2024 Annual Report.

The title of the Annual Report, Healthcare of the Future Starts Now, emphasises that modern advances in healthcare and technology are already changing approaches to the treatment and prevention of diseases. This slogan embraces multiple aspects such as the development of new treatments, remote health monitoring, integration of artificial intelligence in diagnostics, and other innovations that are becoming a reality in today's world and make therapies more accurate and effective.

Another important aspect is access to medical care. Healthcare systems all over the world strive to improve the accessibility of medical services, including remote doctor-patient communication and conveniently located treatment facilities.

As a leader in the private healthcare sector possessing unique competences in various areas of medicine, MD Medical Group sets standards of medical care, introduces innovations and new technologies, and expands its footprint in Russian regions, making healthcare more accessible.

Designed for a wide range of stakeholders, the Annual Report offers a comprehensive analysis of the Company's activities, its operational and financial results, as well as the Russian healthcare market.

The Company's strong operational and financial results for 2024 vividly convey the high quality of medical services and increase in the number of patients.

The growth in market capitalisation during the reporting year is a proof of consistent backing provided by the Company's shareholders to its investment case.

This year we have placed a special focus on analysing our strategic priorities, assessing their progress in 2024, and setting goals for 2025.

Given the rising importance of ethical aspects of business, the Annual Report provides a detailed description of our ESG and risk management initiatives.

We are certain that the Annual Report will serve not only as a source of information for investors, shareholders and partners, but also as a tool for assessing the Company's achievements. We hope that all the stakeholders will highly appreciate our contribution to the development of healthcare.

The report is available in Russian on the Company's website at <https://www.mcclinics.com/investors/annual/>.
